

The SBCBA Family Law and Debtor/Creditor Section Presents:

“The Intersection of Family Law and Bankruptcy”

When: October 17, 2017, 12:00 to 1:00 pm

Where: Santa Barbara College of Law

Presented by Carissa N. Horowitz and Matthew J. Long

1 hour MCLE credit (pending approval)

Financial matters are almost always present in divorce proceedings. Family law litigants in a financial crisis can file for bankruptcy before, during or after a divorce. Learn how bankruptcy can affect divorce proceedings:

- The benefits and disadvantages of filing chapter 7 or 13 as co-debtors or as individual debtors prior to a divorce proceeding.
- The benefits and disadvantages of filing chapter 7 or 13 after a dissolution judgment.
- Representation of your client in the other party's chapter 7, 11 or 13 before and after a dissolution judgment, including:
 - o what you can do in a divorce proceeding while a bankruptcy is pending
 - o protecting your client's judgment

Price: $25.00 for SBCBA Members, $30.00 for Non-Members

Contact Information/R.S.V.P.: Carissa Horowitz, Esq. Carissa can be contacted at carissa@beallandburkhardt.com. Checks should be made payable to the Santa Barbara County Bar Association. Checks should be mailed to Beal & Burkhardt, Attn: Carissa Horowitz, 317 E. Carrillo Street, Santa Barbara, CA 93101. Please RSVP BY Monday, October 16, 2017.

